

The Living History Society of Minnesota cordially invites one and all to

A Celebration of Winter

To take place March 3rd, 4th and 5th, 2017 in Saint Paul, Minnesota.

Enjoy a weekend of period entertainments, socializing, dining and dancing in elegant surroundings!

Our Celebrations will commence with an Evening Sociable on Friday evening at the Triune Masonic Temple in Saint Paul, to commence at 7 o'clock in the evening. Join us for laughter, jollification, games and convivial company. A light standing supper will be served. Period attire is admired but not required.

Saturday will begin with a Dance Lesson from nine in the morning until two in the afternoon at the Triune Temple. Our able dance mistress will teach all manner of nineteenth century dances, including waltzes, polkas, schottisches, reels and quadrilles. Lunch will be served, and a lesson on ballroom etiquette provided. Comfortable modern attire is appropriate. Dances of all ages, levels and abilities are highly encouraged to attend this casual and comfortable workshop. Partners are not required.

Afterwards, the doors to the Lodge will be closed in preparation for the Ball and Dinner.

Dressing rooms open at half past five o'clock for those wishing to make use of them. Doors to the candlelit Historic Ballroom open at half past six o'clock. Dancing will begin promptly at seven o'clock with the Grand March, and we will waltz into the wee hours to dulcet melodies provided by The Camptown Ladies. A formal period dinner will be served during the course of the evening. Evening attire of the mid-19th century is respectfully required. In accordance with custom, admission to the evening's events is limited to those aged fourteen and older.

Our revels end with an At-Home social at a private residence near Saint Paul on Sunday afternoon at 2 pm. Coasting and skating will be available for the intrepid (weather permitting), along with parlor games and conversation. Please bring a dish to share in a light early supper. Period attire is admired but not required.

Events on Friday and Saturday will take place at the Triune Masonic Temple, 1898 Iglehart Ave in St. Paul. Directions to the At-Home social will be provided at the ball. Pre-registration is respectfully required. Please see our website for more information.
