Lunch will be served, and a lesson on ballroom etiquette provided. Comfortable modern attire is appropriate. Dancers of all ages, levels, and abilities are highly encouraged to attend this casual and comfortable workshop. Partners not required.

Saturday evening, dressing rooms open at half past 5 o'clock for those wishing to make use of them. Doors to the candlelit Historic Ballroom open at half past 6 o'clock. Dancing will begin promptly at 7 o'clock with the Grand March, and we will waltz into the wee hours to dulcet melodies provided by The Camptown Ladies. A formal period dinner will be served during the course of the evening.

Evening attire of the mid-19th century is respectfully required.

In accordance with custom, admission to the evening's events is limited to those aged fourteen and older.

Our revels end with an At-Home Social at a farm south of Saint Paul on Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Light refreshments will be served, along with parlor games and conversation. Period attire is admired but not required.
